

I subscribe to XM due to the outstanding coverage over wide areas when I travel and their content of BBC and other programing NOT available locally. Keep the weather and traffice in their programming. Its available on Internet so why not on a pay to listen service.